Basketball Lives Here

The Hoosier Gym

"Welcome to Indiana Basketball." Visit the gym where Coach Norman Dale nervously said this line before the first game coaching the Hickory Huskers in the movie Hoosiers. Put yourself directly in the movie by experiencing staged locker rooms, memorabilia from the film, and more. You can even dribble a basketball around and shoot for a three pointer! The gym still regularly hosts games and events. You never know who you might see at the Hoosier Gym.

Hoosier Gym Outdoor Court & Mural

Hickory Outdoor Court is on the grounds of the Knightstown Academy (next door to the Hoosier Gym) and is a replica of the Hoosier Gym floor with the same court lines painted on the surface. Just a block away, look for the Hoosiers Mural on US 40 in downtown Knightstown. This mural by notable Indiana artist Pam Bliss captures a memorable moment of Hoosiers.

Indiana Basketball Hall of Fame

In Indiana, basketball isn't just a game- it's a tradition, passion, and part of the Hoosier culture. Walk through years of basketball history by visiting the Indiana Basketball Hall of Fame. The 14,000-square foot museum features individual and team recognition, leading statistics, and several interactive exhibits. The flags flying outside designate the teams who had recent postseason success.
